Godfrey tabled a study of the Cuban cruise missiles. He said that there is enough uncertainty to warrant a continued close watch. He does not intend to distribute the memorandum outside of Headquarters. He noted that the memorandum on bomb damage in Hanoi which the Director requested yesterday might be finished by COB today.

Kent informed the Director that ACDA is apparently interested in the problems of verifying a truce agreement in Vietnam.

Carver reported that he will be working closely with Admiral Showers on investigating a compromise of [REDACTED]. He noted a cable concerning Senator Symington's desire to meet with Major Mai. He said that Chalmers Roberts called him for lunch. The Director approved this meeting but warned him to avoid the subject of bombing in North Vietnam.
